

Title: Will They Glorify God In You?

Text: Galatians 1:10-24

Main Idea: Rejoice in the one true Gospel

Division Statements:

1. The truth of Paul's Gospel is attested by his motive (v. 10).

Consider what Paul's Gospel says about man, its radical God-centered message, and consider what embracing it meant for a person living at this time. Note also the essential difference between Biblical Christianity and man made "works-based" religions. Paul's motive becomes clear.

2. The truth of Paul's Gospel is attested by its origin (vv. 11-12).

3. The truth of Paul's Gospel is attested by his miraculous conversion (vv. 13-14).

In discussing these verses, we have a very good place for a biographical sketch brining in descriptions from the books of acts and other Scriptures.

4. The truth of Paul's Gospel is attested by his independent witness (vv. 15-24).

The plain import of these verses.

Bridging From Text To Sermon

Textual Idea: Paul explains how to know that the Gospel he preached is true.

Sermon Proposition: Rejoice in the one true Gospel

Interrogative: How do we recognize the true Gospel

Transition: The text gives four evidences for the truth of Paul's Gospel.
